

DDJANW Team

Youtube Link:

<https://youtu.be/xHBhnoqkZjc>

Lessons we learned:

1. We learned how to do unit testing and the importance of unit testing and how each component needs to be tested.
2. We learned that everyone contributed differently, but equally when working on the project. Some contributed more to the code, while others contributed more to the design process. Our group had different strengths and we contributed based on our strengths.